REVIEW OF OCR 21SCIENCE B7 PAST PAPER

- I enjoyed reading Sam's Letters to Jennifer by James Patterson. The reader gets a terrific mystery and a romance novel all for the price of one. This was my first James Patterson novel and I really enjoyed it. I can hardly wait to read more of his fine stories.
- A major international conference on this subject was convened in 1993. It assembled virtually every significant surviving military and civilian decision maker from the USA, USSR/Russia, and Cuba: including our former SECDEF Robert McNamara and Presidential Advisor Arthur Schlesinger... Russian naval leaders and Nikita Khrushchev's son...and the Cuban officer in charge of their two batteries of nuclear-armed surface-to-surface coastal defense missiles. This gathering lasted for several days and was covered in separate 2 or 3 hour long broadcasts by every major television network in the United States. Their interview testimony and its briefly-available transcripts provided new information dramatically different from official accounts of The Cuban Missile Crisis both before and [unfortunately] after this documentation. Military-industrial politics still controls "history" as it does the "news".
