REVIEW OF ROBERT KIYOSAKI SECOND CHANCE FILETYPE

- You can't tell from the image, but this book is quite small and it makes the font very difficult to read. I would have gotten a different version if I had known. A bible was requested by my 5 year old and I think the stories are a little advanced for her age. Wish I had researched more, but as it was from Santa I didn't return it...
- Ever wondered what catholics really believe? Why they havesome strange views & practices? Written by a field-testedapologist, Theology and Sanity sets out in layman's terms a marvellously clear view of catholic theology. The title summarises the author's view that insanity is failing to see what IS -- and proceeds to describe what it is the catholic church SEES in its theological schema (ie just who and what are God, Jesus, apostles, Mary, angels, saints, pope, bishops - & theological underpinnings for catholic morality and practice) . Sheed's lucid descriptions are exceeded only by his wonderful prose. Highly recommended to both catholics and non-catholics. Companion volume: Society and Sanity -- an equally well-written exposition of catholic anthropology and sociology. Will be seen by some as somewhat dated, the core truths nevetless shine forth brilliantly.
