REVIEW OF ISLAND I SHIPWRECK

- Patricia explains in detail the ups and downs that have occurred in her fruitful life. The strength she showed after her near fatal stroke is a true inspiration to not only other strike victims but to all of us. She totally exposes her feelings regarding her relationship with Gary Cooper, the subsequent abortion and the animosity she received from his daughter. What a beautiful and sad love they shared. I would thoroughly recommend this book to anyone who is a fan of Patricia Neal the actress but also anyone who is inspired by a very brave woman. Also anyone who like myself are fans of Gary Cooper will be very interested in the personal side of this man and the huge part he played in Patricia's life.

- I am a loooong time fan of ST. However, I never forayed into reading any of the books, because the couple of times I picked one up, the writing [was bad]- effectively turning me off to further attempts for a very long time...One day I sat down and started reading this book for the heck of it and was immediately drawn in. All the wonderful cheesiness and derring do! of TOS was perfectly captured in this book. I felt just like I was watching an episode of the series - I could even hear the overblown music and see the wonderfully overdawn and totally sixties costumes on the alien women...I was excited when the ending left me hanging for more...I eagerly picked up the next book....and that's where everything went wrong.... Unlike one of the previous reviewers I don't mind going through a series of books...I love it...I personally prefer "Neverending Stories" - but the next book is just awful! The writing is reprehensible at best! The characters are just caricatures of people...I can't say enough about how awful it is...I still haven't forced myself to finish the second book...Eventually I suppose I will because I want to know what happens to Capt. Kirk...but oohhhhh - how painful it isRead and love the first book...but be prepared for a massive let down with the second....(I've subsequently started to read some other Trek books and I can't recommend Sarek by A.C. Crispin highly enough...WOW!!!)
