REVIEW OF BOMAG BT 58 MANUAL

- In these 'truly' exceptional essays, Gore Vidal poses the only 'truly' ultimate question: 'What happened to all of us for most of our lives?' His answers are also 'truly' devastating. He exposes an empire

(the US) which spends half of its national budget to impose her vision of the world on the rest: 'For 50 years we have supported too many tyrants, overthrown too many democratic governments, wasted too much of our own money in other people's civil wars to pretend we're just helping out all those poor little folks all around the world who love freedom and democracy.' What is this vision in Vidal's words? No public healthcare (Everybody 'has the right to die unhelped'), Governing by laws ... and lawyers, Media obsessed with sex (not with 'who collects what money from whom for what'), Leaders as powerless figureheads, A fiercely disinformed population, Massive investments in war matters ('the same money spent on the country's infrastructure - our rotted home base - would have saved us debt, grief, blood') turning the Union into a socialist country for the rich and free enterprise for the poor ('public money doesn't go to the people, but to big business') Civil liberties abused on a daily basis A 'moral' majority explaining the 'moral' chaos by the free distribution of condoms ... By the way, Gore Vidal exposes also the myths about Pearl Harbor, the dropping of the A-bombs on Japan, the 1948 Berlin crisis and some disturbing facts about the Oklahoma bombing. His portrait of Frank Sinatra is astonishing, of Harry Truman dark (the National Security Act), of Clare Boothe Luce candid ('Time' is fiction) and of JFK devastating. Gore Vidal is one of the greatest and most astute political commentators in US history. His books are (and will be) a must read for all present and future US historians, professional or amateur. Hopefully, those will show at least a small part of his courage. N.B. I do not agree that 'ultimately' the JFK and Dallas murders were Mafia hits.

- According to the back of the book: -Buy a silky dress - Get some lacy lingerie - Practice on a married man? A brief trip to Dallas for a wedding offers a veterinarian, Cecily Connaught, a chance to break her sexual dry spell & seduce a man. When she bumps into gorgeous Wil Murchison, she's ecstatic. The hunk from her past would be a perfect one-night stand, she thinks - until Cecily learns he's taken. What she doesn't realize, though, is Will ISN'T MARRIED! But he's using the misunderstanding to ensure he's the guy who fulfills sexy Cecily's needs.....
