REVIEW OF TOP NOTCH 3 SECOND EDITION WORKBOOK ANSWERS

- This was a good book in many ways, the characters were extremely well developed, I felt like I got to know them personally.. and the setting was great. I think the book should continue. I was only a bit disappointed by the overall "story" with so many great characters it seemed like we were being set up for something great... but i think the story itself could have been further developed. There has to be another novel... we were all left hanging a bit. I hope she does write more... I would say that she is one of the better sci fi writers i have read in a while, (reminds me a bit of Dan Simmons books, a bit like Dune books). I recommend the book!

- "Looking Backward", by Edward Bellamy, was clearly a vehical to espouse a leftist utopian view of society. Mr. Bellamy's account of society in the year 2000 could have come verbatim from Stalin's Soviet propoganda. This is an excellent book to read for the purposes of recognizing pie eyed utopian drival that has proven to destroy societies that try to implement policies to support this dogma.
