REVIEW OF ISO 37001 ANTI BRIBERY MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS STANDARD

- I have just been rereading the series and have had a strange suspicion...I do not believe this series is being written by the same person. First of all, the every book is written with a slightly different style. Second, there are many inconsistencies in the series for example some of Min's viewings from the first book never show up later, maybe they are still yet to come? or were forgotten or not used by successive authors. Also starting with this book, book 5, many inconsistencies begin to show up, for example, at the end of book 4 the Avendesora tree in Rhuidean has only one limb broken, but in the beginning of book 5 it is burnt to a crisp...Finally, while there are many appearances of "Robert Jordan" at various events, the appearance of having just one author would not be hard to do, and "Robert Jordan" is actually the main character in a book entitled "For Whom the Bell Tolls" by Hemingway!

- I think this book was great at the start. St.Nicholas would go all around the world to the good girls and boys and put candy in their stockings. St.Nick would start each Christmas Eve with a shout to all his deer. I enjoyed this book.
