REVIEW OF ALBERGUE OXANEA ISABA PIRINEO MONTA A NAVARRA

- Not a huge fan of Henry James. I have to read it for class. But the book came in perfect condition!
- This was an awesome read - read it in a few days. Kathleen told a wonderful story that you could relate to. I especially liked the way she portrayed the child - very insightful and true to the bone. Children are exactly the way little Miss Ebony was portrayed - I smiled a lot when I read parts with Ebony in it and even cried. The story told regarding the skin color of people was one that is true to this very day and told very well without a lot of prejudices involved. Especially if you are bi-racial you can relate very well to how hard it is to fit in when you are not enough of either race. I know a lot of people think it's easy to be bi-racial but it is a very hard thing for children and adults to deal with. Because as I said you are not enough of either race and caught in-between, which sometimes will leave confusion if you are not comfortable with who you are as a person. Kathleen told the struggle of that very well with Nina. This was a wonderful book that I think anyone would be delighted to read. Loved the story line and the little romance between the two main characters was nice and sweet once overcoming the feelings of skin color. LOVE IT! Oh and the twist at the end - never saw that coming!!
