REVIEW OF WHERE'S WALDO 2015 WALL CALENDAR

- If I could give this book a 10 I would. He has a powerful hunger for life. It also changed my perspective of him. He is also almost a mirror to Hemingway's writing. He writes about things that he has experienced in some way. If you think about it you can almost see where he comes up with the ideas for his books through out his life.
- I want to quote a female reviewer ("LittleOricle"): "I have a friend who lives for her boyfriend and really could use this book but she's so far gone that I've given up hope. I can't tell you how many times she's cancelled on me at the last second because he decided he wanted to go out at that time. Wrong. You hate when your friends do that to you and you're disgusted with them for their attitudes -- so why on earth would you do it? Besides, he's more likely to call back when you don't offer everything on a platter at once -- including your heart; You lose mystery with him when you do that and he loses interest." This quote best personifies the bitter, angry, jealous, envious "gurl friend" of a woman, who is secretly desiring to see her friend's relationship end. Why? Like all envious, bitter little women, they have no man of their own. I have found that if there is real chemistry and interest between two people, the surest way to have a man not call you back is not show interest. In contradiction to LittleCuticle's belief, a man is more likely to call you back when you show him interest. I doubt she would know that though and is still probably dateless and loveless. I used to have "friends" like her. I know her type and woman like her. And to answer her question why on earth I'd cancel on a person like her and go out with my boyfriend--my lover--is because I actually have a boyfriend and would rather spend the time with him going out, having fun, and making love--than spending it with a loser so-called "friend" like her. I used to believe this crap when I was younger. I was even so into the heartless b*tches international website until I realized I was getting older and really becoming just like those bitter lonely losers myself. I think the real sell-outs to women today are women. It's other women to be fearful and distrusting of today--not men. So many bitter, angry women, who when they don't find love want to insanely destroy it with others and then sit around their circle of bitter friends and say "see I told you, men are sh*t." Well, now you know why both men and women cancel on you and don't want to hang out with you LittleCuticle or whatever you call yourself: it's you and your philosophy that's sh*t. And we're tired of listening to that old bull. Now go find yourself a man and shut up and stop concerning yourself with the affairs of us women that actually have a man.
