REVIEW OF ENGLISH NEETU SINGH

- Ralph's amazing ability to relate his experiences as a young boy growing up in Colorado is remarkable! The events, the character personality descriptions, and his thoughts & insights as the story travels onward made me feel as if I were right there by his side. I could hear the voices, see the sights, and feel the sunshine & wind on my skin. Every pre-teen (or even adults) should read his books
- Blue Highways is proof that innocence can still be found within the borders of America, and its path is streaked in blue lines on your maps. Next time the nightly news gets you down, read an excerpt or two from this book, and you will be reassured that not only did a better time exist in America, but can perhaps still be found in the places to which Least-Heat Moon ventured. In Blue Highways, you will meet people who offer their beds, dinner tables and wisdom without expecting anything in return, you will meet Least-heat Moon's desire to find himself through the benevolence and experiences of other people, you will meet life in America they way it really was, the way it really is. Open this book, take the trip Least-heat moon took, you won't just meet other people, you will meet yourself.
