REVIEW OF BMC REMEDY USER GUIDE

- What a treat for me. I had never before read a "swashbuckling" adventure story. Despite not understanding anything about ships and sailing (lots of the language was foreign to me) I was totally engrossed and caught up in the universal themes of strong family and friendship bonds, loyalty, revenge, good vs. evil, etc. To its credit, this book just takes you away. It reads very quickly (once you skip over nautical stuff).

- A friend of mine sent this book to me from England so I got a head start on the U.S.. The problem with the book is I couldn't put it down. Now I have to wait another year or two for Mr. Smith to write another great book. The adventure never stops from the first page to the last. You love Hal and hate his enemies. You may get sea sick from the rolling of his ship. You will be aroused by his affair. Once again, do not pass this book on to a friend. You won't get it back
