REVIEW OF PRACTICAL MANUAL ALAGAPPAN

• Nevil Shute describes the surroundings and characters with such detail it is hard not to see exactly what he wants the reader to imagine. Unlike any other book I have read, I was entranced. I have always been intrigued by stories about WWII, and this is a good one. When elderly Englishman takes a holiday in France trying to get over his sons death, he finds himself the leader of a band of children trying to escape the German invasion.I was amazed that the movie has not been put on VHS or DVD. The movie follows the book fairly closely. Monty Woolley plays the elderly man, and Roddy McDowall and Anne Baxter play two of the children. Otto Preminger is a German Major. Made in 1942 it is both dramatic and comedic. I highly recommend you try to catch it on TV.

• This is a CDROM edition, in my opinion the best method to pack indexes and directories. Smart move by the publisher, Platinum Millennium made a smart choice by putting its very successful yellow pages series on a compact disk, it's the best choice and now searching is made a million times easier. I recommend this to all
