REVIEW OF FLYING CARPET

- Not a book for a young child. It was a page turner, just to see what the world was like.
- When I first saw the cover of the Giver I thought I would hate it. I was required to read it for my English class. When I started reading the first two chapters I didn't like it but, later I couldn't put it aside. This books shows a very different community from ours, and Jonas (the main character)is learning more from our community. The Giver is a very original book. I think the author and the book are both great.
