REVIEW OF HIGHWAY ENGINEERING BY KHANNA AND JUSTO 10TH EDITION PDF

- Elvis Cole, LA private inspector, is baby-sitting his girlfriend's son, when all of a sudden the child disappears. Elvis's goal is to find the child, all the while working with tight lipped partner, the LA cops, his girlfriend's ex husband, and many other goons and low-lives. While not a literary masterpiece, this book is a fun page turner. The action and fluidity is constant, the plot is well conceived, and the stand-offs between Elvis and everyone else keeps things interesting. Though the plot is pretty standard, the unraveling of the plot is magnificent. Crais could have turned the book into a sappy kid story, but instead concentrated on the kidnapping hunt. This is a great page turning read. One of those books where before you know, you've reached the end.
