REVIEW OF CIVICS 8TH GRADE STUDY GUIDE

- My father named me after the book's main character and perhaps that's what led me to write my own Western novel ("Bounties"). Of course, "Shane" can't be topped and is a unique Western in its own category. While I rely on humor to tell my stories, Jack Schaefer paints a picture of a man trying to escape his violent past and eventually has to accept who he is and that his destiny is something he can't escape. This book is not just a Western but a beautiful tale about growing up, boyhood dreams, and heroes that emerge from wide and unforgiving landscapes. Thanks to Schaefer for giving us a book that continues to inspire so many people.

- Mencken provides a look at our impossible language with great flair, erudition, and with a liberal dollop of humor. Here is a splendid book that you can read systematically cover-to-cover or pick up and read in bits and pieces. It covers the development of our language both topically and historically. This volume is absolutely indispensable for both the amateur logophile and the scholar of the English language. I recommend it very highly! It is incredible fun to read!
