REVIEW OF FREE GUIDED READING PASSAGES

- Good value this - sixteen short stories instead of one, but some of them might have been stretched out to become full-length novels by other authors. They're not great tales, but collectively they make a compulsive case for you to 'add to basket'. Apparently some have criticised the Olde English tale "All the World is a Stage" (which includes Shakespeare as one of the characters) but I thought it was very authentic given the American hand that wrote it! There's also a mini Lincoln Rhyme story, and several tales in which the baddies get away with it! A good way to introduce yourself to Jeffrey Deaver, if you're not a fan already.

- Erin Hunter is possibly one of the best authors on earth. So far I have read all the warrior cat books and have to say they are fascinating. there is much adventure in these books and they keep you on the edge of your seat. These cats are the best creatures EVER, they are just really cool. Read these books and you are bound to get addicted to them instantly. Leafpaw, Squirrelpaw, and Bramblepaw are the main characters in this book. They have safely arrived in their new home but the cats still have to establish territories and camps and they also need to find a replacement for their all important moonstone. If they don't they can't share medicine cat secrets or elect new clan leaders. But young Brambleclaw is not all sure about everybody and the new land. This book is an amazing work of art that anybody would enjoy.
