REVIEW OF POMPEY THE GREAT CAESARS FRIEND AND FOE

- The giver is a well written book! Although it is a tad bit confusing...your child or even an adult will be given a message of hope, humanity, and graciousness. But it will also give them the sometimes sad truth we humans must endure. I found this book interesting and a MUST READ!!! This book has a few unexpected twists but leaves you with a sense of happiness in the end... I would recommend this book whole-heartedly (100%) to my fellow people. BUY THIS BOOK...you won't be disappointed...I wasn't (But reading some of the other reviews I felt as if maybe this book is either a ABSOLUTE DO or Don't) But still I think this book was One of the best books I've ever read (and I've read many trust me!) five thumbs up!- your fellow 6th grader P.S - (Would not get for a child in the grade below 5th)

- The giver is a thrilling story by Lois Lowery. It tells about a boy named Jonas who lives in a society focused on everyone being the same. Behavior is controlled by drugs, emotions are non-existent and messing up is simply not allowed. Also the citizens have their spouses, children and careers chosen for them. Jonas is given the career of giver. A mysterious job very few know about. When he arrives at his place of work he discovers that the giver is the one person who remembers the outside world. Jonas experiences memories such as color, and snow that make him happy. But he also experiences terrible painful memories like war. He begins to have emotions and wants others to have them too. But will Jonas make it in a world where individuality is literally a crime? This is a thrilling story is not necessarily mystery but more anticipation. It is definitely a page turner. Lowery does a great job in bringing the story to life and making the reader want to know more about Jonas and his friends. I think this book would be best for twelve and over.
