REVIEW OF BSC IST YEAR MATHS QUESTIONS PAPER

- Great book! I read it almost 30 years ago and just this week re-read it. It's a timeless, wonderful piece of literature.
- You know, from the outset of the description of the Salinas valley, that you are in the hands of a master. Steinbeck takes you on a voyage through American History, and more importantly, deep into the hearts of human beings. The book was long, yes, and sometimes Steinbeck seemed to harp on notions of good and evil; but every chapter seemed to leave me with a fresh and lasting insight on the human experience. As he said in his introduction, the story is meant to be a box full of tales about humanity. A book that everyone should read, swallow, and use as a measure against the world around them.
