REVIEW OF BERKLEE JAZZ BASS ACOUSTIC ELECTRIC

- The story starts out slow, but soon it gets real exciting. I loved it when Gillian and Brodrick first meet. I like the way Ms. Garwood made Gillian look real beautiful and the how the Buchanan Clan protected Gillian from other men that just stared at her. I especially liked Brodrick being so possessive and protective of Gillian. I loved the way Brodrick tricks Gillian into matrimony and how the priest kept on saying "A man of the cloth" after he finds out he had been tricked as well in getting them married. It was just so hilarious. Brodrick's character seemed so rough and mean, but he was still afraid of telling Gillian he tricked her into marriage. It made Brodrick really look like a real gentle hero. I thought that it would have been better if Ms. Garwood had another story on Ramsey instead of putting it in the same book because Ramsey looked like a interesting character. But the story was still great with two heros. I just loved the way Ramsey found out he was the stupid guy Bridgette had lost her heart to and the way he told Bridgette that he loved her,too. It was by far the best book of Julie Garwood's I read so far. I just loved it!

- This is such a wonderful series and have read The Secret several times before I learned about the speech to text feature. I enjoyed listening to The Secret while working in my garden and was so disappointed that Ransom (My favorite) was not available with this feature as well. I love to return to these stories over and over and would gladly purchase them again if the speech to text feature was available.
