REVIEW OF THE LEARNING WORKS PREFIXES AND SUFFIXES GRADES 4 8 TEACHING VOCABULARY TO IMPROVE READING COMPREHENSION

- I should admit that maybe I did not read this specific book by Fomenko, but I tried to read one of his books in the original Russian. I quit after reading a third of it: besides being a bogus hypothesis, the book lists some interpretations of Hebrew words to support the theory, and, being familiar with Hebrew, I would state that these interpretations are very dubious, if not outrightly ignorant, thus casting the shade of incompetence upon the entire 'opus'. The theory also smells strongly by the Soviet-style nationalistic racism that would not accept other (inferior) nations achievements, history or even existence. A queer book indeed...

- I am new to these books, but I have to say Stephanie Laurin's, writing is so beautiful. Even with this book being slow, I just love how she writes. It is like your right in the book with the characters. Her sex scenes are never dirty and astound you. And she is truly romantic. This book starts and stops, starts and stops. It is not the kind of book you cannot put down, but it is the kind of book you keep picking up, just because you get addicted to it and have to read it all. I liked devils story better, this one is to much the same, and for a second book in a series, I thought it was to soon to have a repeat of the first. However, I will not give up on this author. She is very gifted.
