REVIEW OF BLACK WIDOW THE NAME OF THE ROSE

- I purchased this book and I love it. it makes me not want to stop reading. it has a great theme! !!!!!!!!!!!!!
- The first time I read The Hobbit, I could not stop until I had read The Lord of the Rings. I kept going back to the library to get each book! I still cannot read one book without reading all of them, from start to finish. The beautiful, in-depth descriptions are so clear-cut it is almost like seeing a movie unfold in your mind. Tolkien obviously loved his Middle-earth and wrote of it with a piercing sweetness, a sweetness much like that of the High-elves of Lothlorien. Shelley describes it best: "Our sweetest songs often tell of saddest thought." Perhaps this book is not for everyone, but for those who want to read a classic, filled with chivalry, wizards, romance, and sheer fun, I hope you will give The Hobbit and The Lord of the Ring a try.
