REVIEW OF NOUNS SINGULAR PLURAL ENGLISH TEACHING MATERIAL

- This book has gotten less funny, and more scary, with every year as the world changes to come more in line with its "what if" scenario. It's a brilliant work, by far my favorite of Atwood's books. More than a commentary, it's populated with real people who seem to be living very real lives. It's easy to imagine yourself in this world as you read it. Wonderful/scary.

- An incredible novel that explores the possible near future. Frightening in a word. I would consider Atwood (in this novel) a writer in the same level as Orwell, Huxley and Bradbury. But the ending could be a bit better. A MUST READ !
