REVIEW OF GREATEST ALFRED MUSIC

- The pages of this book are a little yellowed with age, but still as good as new...can't wait to begin making quilts.
- The review sections of this book are completely worthless. For instance, for the Communications/Media/Drama review section there is only 2 pages of the most basic terms, that any idiot would know what they mean. And for the Literacy/Language section, there is only about 8-9 pages focusing primarily on grammar and not the type of linguistic concepts that appear on the real test. The Literature section is equally weak, with only the most general of timelines and glossaries. I wouldn't bother with this book.
