REVIEW OF DRUG ABUSE AMONG STUDENTS

- I've been working with Struts for almost a year now and have read many web articles and 3 other Struts books - this is by far the best. In addition to providing excellent code examples and providing solid explanations of how this complex framework works, it provides something even more valuable: tips and advice about best practices for java/web/struts/application programming.

These are extremely valuable nuggets of info that could only be obtained through painful experience - or from masters of the art. If you want to master Struts - buy this book.

- I never believed that old cliché about laughter being the best medicine until my best friend gave me "Who Moved My Soap" to read. I recently lost my job and had been down in the dumps, looking for work in this lousy economy. This book put an instant smile on my face! Anyone who's ever had a lousy boss or other workplace woes will completely love it. I passed it on to another friend (who happened to have lost almost all of his 401k thanks to crooked CEOs) and he said it was the funniest book he's ever read. But it's more than just funny... it's TRUE!
