REVIEW OF BUILD ME UP BUTTERCUP CHORDS VER 2 BY THE FOUNDATIONS

- This is a pleasant book about the life of Hortence, daughter of Josephine Bonapart, and step daughter to Napoleon Bonapart. This book seems to be a well researched book about her life. Unfortunately her life is a bit of a bore. If you have the chance read it, if not don't kill yourself to get the book. However, don't be discouraged from Norah Lofts. Try her books "Kings Pleasure" "The Concubine" or one of her bests..."Lost Queen."

- This is a great classic.I first read this book in junior high school and I searched for years before finally finding it here at Amazon.com. The story begins and ends with an old woman and then goes back through time to tell her tale.It is eloquent and moving,charming and insightful.We see the world through the eyes of a small pioneer girl.We grow up with her,watch her love for her family and devotion to them grow and learn why she does what she does.You will laugh and cry right along with her and become a part of her world . Read this book if you want to hold a part of history in your heart.
