REVIEW OF ENGLISH FILE INTERMEDIATE PLUS STUDENTS BOOK WITH

ITUTOR AND ONLINE SKILLS

- I didn't get much out of this..I am a widow of 18 months, and was hoping for direction or points to follow to better equipt myself for this journey through grief.. I wouldn't recommend it if you are looking for guidance or help along the way..
- Mikhal Lammeck is a history professor, though an American, he is living and teaching students in Scotland. His speciality is assassination. Both from a historical perspective as well as teaching his military students how to operate as assassin killers. The time frame of the book is January 1945-May 1945. Judith, a persian master assassin, is put ashore on a Massachusetts beach after having come in on a raft subsequent to disembarking from a submarine. Her mission is to kill President Roosevelt. I love these assassin books going back to Day of the Jackal and Sean Flannery's Counter-Strike. I always have rooted for the assassin. Lammeck is contacted by a former student of his who now works for the secret service and returns to the U.S. to help protect Roosevelt. It seems as though Judith is always a step ahead of the authorities. This is a fine read. The only reason I give it four stars is that it didn't seem to have that can't put it down quality. Particularly some of the passages related to Lammeck's pursuit of Judith. The scenes specifically related to Juith are first rate. Nevertheless it's definitely worthwhile.
