REVIEW OF NO PERMITAS QUE NADIE TE ROBE TU SUENO HOBIX

- This Bible was a gift from a family in my congregation. I couldn't be happier with this Bible. At first I was doubtful that I would like a larger, heavier bible (having always preached from a Holman Thinline NKJV) but the extra wide margins, coupled with the verse by verse single column make for lots of white space for these little extra notes you need to deliver a powerful sermon. The quality is good, though the cover is a rather stiff at first, it loosens up after about 3 months of good use. The pages are good and thick, no flimsy Bible paper in this one. I only write in my Bible with pencil so I can't speak to anything about bleed through. If you want a Bible with the readability of the ESV that is NOT in paragraph form, has lots of white space for notes, and is a good quality Bible for daily use, then this is the Bible for you.

- After reading the book I was amazed that a scientist and author from the 19th century was with the knowledge available at the time have such insight and conviction and courage to publish this great piece of work. It makes you wonder what he could have said about all the discoveries made since his time. I think he would have been surprised by how humans still cling to the old beliefs and superstitions despite all the evidence against it.
