REVIEW OF SOCIETY AND TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE 7TH EDITION

- Probably one of the best of Clancy's books, before he went into mass production of hyper-chauvinistic fantasy pulp fiction.
- Without giving too much away, I will say this book is not as light as the movie. Just the same the book has merit. I like the way the story was laid out, plus how it reads more "subversive" than the movie. Not sure if the author intended to write a book that thumbs its nose at agism, but she did...and God bless her for it!
