REVIEW OF 111800888X UUS72

- A great book for any Christian or non-Christian. It contains some simple theology with some good analogys.
- This is a dangerous read for one that may still be avoiding Jesus Christ. The reviewer that stated this book is "philosophically flawed" and that Lewis "over-simplifies" is buying into the same old unspoken nonsense. Many want a god that can meet them intellectually, which means of course that the God the simple man worships can't be the one for them. The Gospel is deliberately simple; Lewis could not over-simplify it.....he could neither add to it nor take away from it. It is because of the Gospel's simplicity that Jesus is available to all people at all times, everywhere. God's intellect can be matched by no created being and any individual that finds salvation through Christ to be of no intellectual challenge is really revealing this: They value themselves above other people and in doing so expose the very nature of sin and God's amazing mercy of sending Christ into the world. A paradox? Of course, and the narrow road to the Kingdom. Welcome!
