REVIEW OF STREAMING SHARING STEALING BIG DATA AND THE FUTURE OF ENTERTAINMENT MIT PRESS

- This book doesn't hold quite the weight as "Slaughterhouse Five" or "Cat's Cradle" to critics and many readers, but I believe it to be his funniest work without a doubt. Even though it doesn't make quite a grand statement as those two books, it nonetheless is filled with brilliant satire and comments on our ridiculous society. The book may be even stronger because it was probably more difficult to make this subject matter work so well. The characters are memorable and you won't stop laughing. Any first-time Vonnegut reader would be doing fine to start here if they aren't as inclined to delve into his science-fiction works, and for those who started with them, you will not be disappointed with this one.

- Probably the funniest book I've ever read. Vonnegut always has something worthwhile to say, but this is probably his best work ever! A must-read for everyone.
