REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS COMPETING IN THE GLOBAL MARKETPLACE 11TH EDITION

- A great book about a even greater designer, don't over look this one.
- Facinating book writen from the perspective of a corruptor. Very easy to read, the chapters are remarably well focused and they all interconnect. This doesn't deal so much with what people think of as the great sins. Instead it deals with how smaller things become greater over time. It deals with how people look at only their own good, and often think only in therms of gaining at the expence of others; Judging themselves as somthing only because others are not. For nonbelievers it should be just as interesting, not as a religious text, but as a book about how to keep from becoming preoccupied with stuff that really doesn't matter. Nonbelievers should find this message just as relevant. It also talks a great deal with the problems with many churches, and how elitism of the faithful can in fact become a huge vice. One of the book's greatest messages is to look at the basics of things, is it righteous? as opposed to, is it with the times?
