REVIEW OF WHIRLPOOL TYPE 111 MANUAL

- Sam's Letters to Jennifer was written very beautifully with a special touch of love, faith and destiny. It is two great loves intertwined in each other, that make this even more passionate. The novel is very touching, and it made me laugh, weep and smile throughout the great works of James Patterson's imagination. Love the book, and will read it again!!!
- Has James Patterson sunk so low that he's now penning drivel just for the money? Every 1-star reviewer of this book is right on, so I won't repeat their critiques. Every 4- and 5-star reviewer must have read a different book! I am angry that Mr. Patterson holds his loyal fans in such low esteem that he'd allow so shallow and boring a book to come to market. I am angry that his publisher was so greedy to do it! Like so many other bestselling authors, Patterson seems to have lost his touch, even in his mystery series. A smart author should know when to say when, and if he doesn't, then I do - WHEN! If he continues to write this kind of garbage, I will no longer read it.
