REVIEW OF SOUND AND SENSE PERRINE SECOND EDITION

- Picking up this book without ever reading it in highschool or 1984 I had no expectations. After reading it, I LOVED IT. I fell in lov right away with the characters and the whole idea of the world they live in. Its a reasonably short read, but there is soo much to take form it other than just the story.I really loved the ending of the book, it was soo fitting and right for the story. Most people I know perfer 1984 over BNW, but I say BNW is better. Dont take my word for it, read it for yourself, even if you think 1984 is the better book, at least you've read a literary classic!!!

- Huxley's Brave New World is a story about the future world and how bad things our in their 'civilization'. Everything deals with how to get as many clones as they can, sex, and artificial happiness.The beginning of the book was very slow, but then so was the whole book. I never could understand what Huxley was trying to portray with all the recreational sex and artificial happiness, which was achieved by taking a pill supplement. By writing about the future, as he characterizes it, he is telling us about how dark and disgusting the world might be in the future. Something must be wrong with him if he thinks this is how the world will turn out.I give this book 1.1 stars out of 5.
