REVIEW OF 0964016540 UUS39

- My wife and I read Mere Christianity together early in our married life more than 40 years ago. It is the read of a lifetime for us. As Christian lifelong learners, we still refer to and benefit from its principles, We have practiced giving a copy of Mere Christianity to high school graduates in our church fellowships for many years; we have given away hundreds of copies this way, and received countless letters of thanks, some many years after the gift. Its principles of struggles with belief and faith in the midst of doubt are as relevant now as in the 60s when we first met the book.

- Every page of this substantial work is filled with incredible insight and beautiful writing. I feel this should be required reading for all Christians. After reading this I feel well prepared for defending my faith. If you are a non-believer, reading Lewis will force you to question your reasoning and examine your spiritual condition from an honest, intellectual viewpoint.
