REVIEW OF TOSHIBA PHONE SYSTEM USER GUIDE

- I wanted to see what was said about my notorious ancestor and was satisfied with the angry words Bradford had to say about him. It was so interesting to read about the first Thanksgiving and see more into the mind of those brave pilgrims who settled our land.

- The book was an easy read for the in-training investigator. I was however a little disappointed by the one mistake about the Greenbrier Ghost, it said the year, which had the last 2 numbers switched in the paragraph, I probably wouldn't have caught it if it hadn't been for the photograph of the tombstone directly below it. Besides, that little mistake, I found the book enjoyable and it gave me a lot of ideas on what to take into my next investigation.
