REVIEW OF THIS IS CRICKET WE ARE ENGLAND FOR THE 2017 18 ASHES SERIES

• I brought this for my study buddy. She would call herself that but that is what we do. She had been admiring mine since we started so I thought I could get her one. What a great bargain. I could not have gotten this gift if the price hadn't been reasonable in my opinion. Thanks, Amazon!

• I can't believe I waited until age 28 to read this book - and I'm such a Bradbury fan! I think it would have clicked more with me at a younger age, but it was still fun to read. This is a classic example of Bradbury's "indirect storytelling"... he presents the framework or essential elements of a situation, and then it's left for your imagination to fill in the blanks and interpret it. In other words, this book does not spoon-feed you every piece of underlying plot or meaning - that depends on you. It is definitely a spooky book (though somewhat dated and long-winded), and I would recommend it to anyone.
