REVIEW OF FOURTH EDITION PHYSICS BY JAMES WALKER ANSWERS

- I took someone's recommendation on this - she billed it as a somewhat more substantial novel. It isn't. Just another bodice ripper. If you like that sort of thing. I don't so I'm not even sure if it's a good one. I imagine this as porn (but for women) - all about the sex and the story is silly and improbable and actually dumb.

- The Secret History of the Pink Carnation is a historical "what if" novel dealing with the Scarlet Pimpernel. The book assumes Sir Percy to be a real man and constructs a world of spies around him, all with names as floral and outlandish as his own. If you love history and buckling swashes, you'll enjoy this book. It interchanges with a modern story as well of researcher Eloise Kelly and her own struggles as a scholar and a single woman.
