REVIEW OF MASTER THE ENGLISH TENSES COURSE HANDBOOK STUDY GUIDE

- I've been enjoying ADOPP for over a year now. It is refreshing to repeat prayers that are humble, selfless, grace-filled. These prayers are becoming formative for me, and are also becoming close friends. They lead me to embrace Christian holiness and to humbly examine my own egocentricity, confessionally. After Shawchuck and Job's, "A Guide to Prayer", ADOPP is the book I've given away most. Sure, the language is a little archaic (I'm using old versions of the book. I'm not sure if recent printings have been updated) but it is well worth the investment. Of all the books I've given my father over the years, I'm sure this is his favorite, too.
- I purchased this book as a surprise replacement for the same edition that my sister had used daily for six decades, but was lost during a hospital stay. Although her copy had been heavily annotated, this replacement copy's interior appeared untouched and the exterior was only slightly worn. This replacement copy was a wonderful blessing for my sister and I am so very thankful for the seller's association with Amazon, making it possible for me to locate it.
