REVIEW OF 8TH GRADE ELA PACING GUIDE

- If your looking for something lite to read, something without hidden meaning, to take you to the exotic local of Cairo, Egypt, then this is the book for that. The action was minimal, but enough to keep me interested, conflict between love, duty, and friendship plays a role in the 3 main charactors. Nothing stellar about the book, it was just OK. Lacked the drama and conspirtorial shine and polish of Christopher Hyde's WWII thrillers.
- The Abduction of Julia was very humorous and fast-paced! The main characters, Alec and Julia were perfect for each other.I love regency era historicals and this has to be one of the best I've read in a long, long time.Karen Hawkins reminds me of Julia Quinn or Amanda Quick. Just a taste of the history and a lot of personality.A GREAT read!
