REVIEW OF ELECTRIC MOTOR DRIVES MODELLING AND ANALYSIS KRISHNAN

- Let me make a declaration: John Steinbeck was a genius and a brilliant writer; however, with "Of Mice and Men" he simply fell short. Although it was extremely well-written in Steinbeck's signature simple style, the novel was just too brief for the plot resolve itself. The resolution seemed forced and rushed. Despite this, Steinbeck did fit in an amazing amount of character development in just over one-hundred pages. I would recommend "The Grapes of Wrath" over "Of Mice and Men." I would also strongly urge readers to shy away from "The Red Pony" and "The Pearl," also by John Steinbeck. READ "THE GRAPES OF WRATH" INSTEAD!

- This book was magnificent. I started it knowing how it would end, yet I was still close to tears when I put down this wonderful book. A wonderful book for someone who wants to read an amazing classic, yet doesn't want to have to spend four or five months reading it.
