REVIEW OF HARLEY DAVIDSON POLICE EDITION MOTORCYCLE

- The book was pretty well written, but is typical in that the conservatives are the evil ones and the liberals are the good guys. How tiresome that plotline is!! But the unforgivable sin is the third secret. It is just plain stupid. Any one who knows anything about Catholicism will just laugh off the third secret. It is just wishful thinking by people who want their Catholicism in the cafeteria style. I stopped reading it after that.
- Several centuries from now humanity is busily settling far-off planets and contacting alien beings. Those on the frontline of this effort are the Explorers. Explorers are those individuals are have been deemed to be of normal or above-normal intelligence but have a crucial flaw...they are, in one form or another, disfigured. As such they are deemed Expending Crew Members (ECMs) and are the vanguard of humanity's effort to contact alien life...in other words, they get sent into all the really dangerous first-contact situations. Festina Ramos is an Explorer (and an ECM), she has a large red birthmark covering an entire side of her face. Along with her partner Yarrun, she has been assigned to lead a mission escorting the flamboyant Admiral Chee to the planet Melaquin. Over the course of the last 50 years dozens of Explorers have disappeared on Melaquin and Ramos (along with Yarrun and Chee) has been sent to figure out why. After a fairly slow, start, Expendable picks up its pace. The natives on Melaquin are...a very interesting idea. I'd hate to spoil anything here...so let me just say the natives have unique properties that make them a really creative idea on Mr. Gardner's part. As for what happened to the previous Explorers that were sent to Melaquin, that was kind of formulaic...but I enjoyed the story nonetheless. Also, I'd really like another book with much more detail given on the League of Peoples...the background alien federation/conglomeration that gave humanity much of its sophisticated technology with which they now use to explore the stars. Overall, I'd definitely read more of Mr. Gardner's works...while Expendable hardly falls into the category of great literature, it is an enjoyable story with some really interesting ideas.
