REVIEW OF BOUCHON BAKERY

- I love to cook and I love to read, so I was hoping that this book would be, well, more than what it was. I rate it 3.5 out of 5 stars because there were admittedly many insightful moments, as well as many funny ones. Unfortunately, there was also a lot of "filler" material, comprised of random, pointless stories about her friends and too many asides regarding her political views. This just got to be a bit frustrating because this is a memoir of a cooking project, not a social or political commentary.

- One of the best books I've read. Funny, easy to read, lots of jokes. Written with a good sense of humor. I've enjoyed it. I would recommend this book to others.
