REVIEW OF SHAKESPEARE HAMLET STUDY GUIDE

- As many other reviewers have pointed out, the "Celtic" premise is ridiculously overblown. The Army of Northern Virginia can not be compared to the Scots at Culloden in 1745. Also, as other reviewers have pointed out, the book ignores many "big picture" issues that played into the outcome of the war. Better alternative reading would be "Two Great Rebel Armies" by McMurry or "Why the South Lost" by Hattaway and company.

- Terrible- a long whining expose of poor-poor Rachel's BPD. Frankly it struck me more like Rachel's rather a spoiled rich kid brat who grows up to be nasty spoiled bratty wife. She blames all her issues on BPD. The book was poorly written, one long overly melodramatic tale of endless whining and self pity. Bleeeh....don't read it.
