REVIEW OF HIGH TECH START UP REVISED AND UPDATED THE COMPLETE HANDBOOK FOR CREATING SUCCESSFUL NEW HIGH TECH COMPANIES

• After reading the first paragraph, I thought, "I wish I had written this book."Chesterton has the gift of thought and the gift of expression, a rare commodity in the age of chatter and blather. I found myself puffing to keep up with his logic!! think the power of the book is found in the subtitle: romance and faith. Americans see God through the squint of Puritanism, so we see Him as merely a syllogism or a cosmic party pooper. We forget that our God was once accused of being a glutton and wine-bibber. I could see many alleged Christians doing likewise if He were here today. Chesterton breaths the life back into Adam's clay, and for this I thank him!

• McGrath's historical explanation of the cultural, political and social events surrounding the perceived need to have another translation is fascinating. A student of history and religion will enjoy understanding the progression from the Geneva Bible with its marginal notes to the King James Version with no notes! The understanding McGrath brings to this work is presented in a clear and easily readable manner. I highly recommend it.
