REVIEW OF STEVE TOLTZ A FRACTION OF THE WHOLE

- I enjoyed "Surrender Dorothy" very much. However, I would have loved to have know Sarah more before her accident. Her character was not fully developed. I liked her best male friend the best. I found the other characters self-absorbed and often annoying. The overall plot was interesting and often heart-wrenching. The author really made you think about your own mortality and how we can touch and be touched by others people's lives...and the affect we have on each other. Ms. Woltzer shows great insight into the human heart. "Surrender Dorothy" was a very quick read.

- After plodding through a few chapters of these boring characters, I surrendered the book to the stack waiting to go back to the library.
