REVIEW OF DEMONS AND HOW TO DEAL WITH THEM KENNETH HAGIN

- Chris Rock (the famous, hilarious comedian) recommended this book in Essence magazine. After reading and subsequently re-reading this powerful book, I am convinced that racism will always be an issue for this country. As a result, this book has widely opened my eyes and patently directed my path as to what my purpose is on this earth. Further, it has sharply increased the acuity of my auditory skills in that I now carefully listen to what people are really saying or not saying to me, and thus, about me. No longer will I allow anyone to "assault" or "murder" me with their definitions and expectations of who I am! Thank you Mr. Baldwin for letting me know that "my house was on fire" and what caused it.

- After reading Tess of the Durbervilles I could not help but feel a little disappointed when I finished it. I couldn't tear myself away from it. I absolutely adored Tess's manners and her "cousins" annoying manner of Tess's sweet temper. I always wondered wether if Tess and he would get together throughout the entire novel. Boy was I surprised!
