REVIEW OF 1996 AP ENGLISH LANGUAGE MULTIPLE CHOICE ANSWERS

• I read this book as a child, and was getting fuzzy on the details, so recently re-read this famous tale. I can assure you that it is more than worthy of its status in literature. Jim Hawkins is a young boy who meets up with a strange and sickly traveler who stays at the Inn for which he is working. The sailor -known as Billy Bones -dies in the night. Upon searching the contents of the dead sailor, a map is found - a treasure map no less! From there we follow the adventures of young Jim as he meets the secretive Long John Silver and his insightful talking parrot on the quest for gold. What mysteries and turns of fate lay waiting for them on Treasure Island? This is a relatively short book, but there is great adventure waiting if you are willing to set your sails for this masterpiece. Relic113

• Our school was trying to match an existing set of Treasure Island books. These books were exactly what we wanted, and following our order, we received them very quickly.
