REVIEW OF LIBRI SCUOLA MEDIA FRANCESE

- This book is by far a beautiful guide to life and if there is only one book you could read, and carry with you everywhere you go, and reread again and again, this is it. For those of us who knock, and those of us, who beleive in the Beauty of the Absolute. Those of us, who wish to make a change . . .
- This is a very revealing and perhaps most revealing account of the last days of the Soviet Union put forth in a concise manner for the reader. It is smooth flowing, vivid in its descriptions and captured the mood at the time in such an authentic way. The reliance on interviews gives a lot of credibility to the narration and the portrayal of the character in the the situations they found themselves in. The society as a whole is bared for he reader to understand and the system's shortcomings are exposed. I read The Union Muzhik the other day and from it, understand the hopes of Perestroika and Glasnost that the demise of the Soviet Union failed to bring to the people.
