REVIEW OF 8820062097 IT21

- This book is at the top of my "must reading" list for new managers who are just getting started in their role, AND for veteran managers who might need to get back in touch with what's really important to employees. I've been a manager for eight years. For me this book reinforced some things, reminded me of things I had forgotten, and gave me many new ideas and tools for getting people excited about their work and workplace. The author does a great job balancing between the soft side of management and the bottom-line issues we all face.

- After trying a pressure cooker you'll agree that all households need one. Energy saving, both of your & the earth's natural resources; healthy, tasty food in much less time than ordinary cooking. This book explains pressure cooking in an easy to read format with good photos so great results are easy to accomplish.
