REVIEW OF STUDY SECTION 1 INTRODUCTION TO PROTISTS

- I'm only giving this book three stars based on the fact that it in no way comes close to "Naked" or "Me Talk Pretty One Day". I love David's books and I will read anything this guy publishes. But based on my past experiences with Sedaris literature, this one lags far behind it's predecessors. Unfortunately for David Sedaris, he set the bar so high with "Naked" that it's so hard to top it. And that's a good thing. You won't be disappointed by this book at all. You just might not love it as much as his other work.

- After having read all of David Sedaris books, this one was just as funny, but it also made me very sad at times. There were alot of chapters (rather, short stories) where I read silently, having not laughed at all, but just engaged myself in them, and couldnt help but feel a little torn up afterwards. I know this isnt a very helpful review for most newcomers to Sedaris' work, but for those of you interested, I recommend starting with Me Talk Pretty One Day. Save Holidays On Ice for the holidays, even though it doesnt matter. I just think it fits better.
