REVIEW OF INVATA LIMBA ENGLEZA GRATIS RAPID SI EFICIENT 1 YOUTUBE

- Scarlett O'Hara is the ultimate survivor. She has more inner strength and passion than any man or woman in the story except, of course, for Rhett Butler. "Gone With The Wind" is the kind of book that you don't just read; you actually live the story, and when you finish reading the last page, you are bereft because you miss the characters so much. The characters are so clearly defined you feel that you know them. The story of the finely detailed lives of every single character, told against the background of some of the most romantic, disburbing, and turbulent years of American history, is unparalleled. It is a great tribute to Margaret Mitchell that her only published work is loved and revered by so many. Anyone who thinks he knows the story of "Gone With The Wind" from seeing the movie is sadly mistaken. This story MUST BE READ to be truly appreciated!

- This probabaly has to be the best book ever written. Mitchell did a great job on the plot, characters, everything! What she did the best on was the characters. Those were definitely three dimensional characters. When you are done you think that there is no way that this is fiction because Scarlett, Rhett, and everybody seem so real. You also come to like Scarlett because with all her faults, she is still a brave and strong character. Trust me, don't be intimidated by its size. It will probably be the best book you ever read.
